Assessment

Each of the units is made up from specific elements applicable to a Food and Beverage Service role, for example preparing and serving food and drink, dealing with payments and maintaining a clean and safe environment. Assessment takes place through evaluation of workplace performance, presenting evidence, witness testimony and questioning etc. A portfolio of evidence is produced which demonstrates that the candidate can perform to the level described. Participants will have a dedicated Assessor who will help assemble the portfolio and prepare them for assessment.

To complete the Apprenticeship in Food and Beverage Service learners must complete the following components:

- Level 2 Certificate in Hospitality and Catering Principles (Food and Beverage Service)
- Functional Skills to include Maths and English at level 1/2
- Personal Learning and Thinking Skills
- Employment Rights and Responsibilities

How long will it take?

To protect quality and make sure all apprentices receive a high-quality meaningful experience, all Apprenticeships must last for a minimum period of 12 months. In some cases the Apprenticeship may be longer and is based upon a number of factors including the number of hours the learner works and the requirements of the apprenticeship framework for the sector they work in. The apprenticeship includes guided learning, assessment and training, and monitored workplace practice which is planned and agreed between the learner, their employer and their Training Advisor.

Progression

Learners may progress onto other Hospitality related qualifications such as the Level 3 Diploma in Hospitality Supervision and Leadership Skills, which forms part of an apprenticeship framework.

How to participate

We will provide you with advice on how to access the programme, methods of delivery and eligibility for funding.
